ABOUT

CANDY COBURN

"Candy Coburn was an absolute delight to have speak at our conference! The audience easily related to her message and her journey of faith. Her enthusiasm and transparency drew women in immediately. Candy is passionate about her music and her message. Her attention to detail and her desire to meet the audience's expectation make her an event planner's dream speaker." - Melody Parry, Event Planner, Columbia Christian Women's Conference

Candy Coburn has been a full-time national touring singer-songwriter over the past twenty years and is proudly based in Austin, Texas.

She not only loves performing live music and leading worship, but also has a passion for bringing people together to encourage them to empower and lift one another up. With her own unique voice of "southern rock-infused gospel soul," her uplifting, genuine songs appeal to music lovers of all styles.

Candy has been a Worship leader for over twelve years and has been a guest Speaker/Teacher in over a hundred churches.

For your church, school, group, or nonprofit's next big event, Candy can offer her skills as a speaker, worship leader, and teacher. Adjusting for your organization's size and goals, Candy's decades of experience help you plan and budget for your event.

Let Freedom Ring Y'all!

Candy calls her story her "Mess-timony." With brutal honesty and vulnerability, Candy details how God cleaned up the mess her life once was and that through His mighty redemptive powers, allowed her to see how beautiful His remodeling projects turn out.

Candy is a consummate professional and possesses a wealth of creative wisdom and experience. Having worked alongside Candy at several different conferences and worship events, Candy brings a disarming professionalism, buys in 1000% to the event's vision, and transforms the attendee's experience immediately. I HIGHLY recommend partnering and utilizing Candy's experience and talent whenever possible.
