ABOUT

CANDY COBURN

"If you have not seen Candy in person, you have missed seeing a total energy performance by a lady who gives 110% every time she walks on a stage. It might be at the huge Kentucky State Fair or at a faith convention, Candy is the same no matter where she is playing. Her God given talent is always on display and she shares it in everyday life as well as on every show she performs." -Duane Allen, Oak Ridge Boys

Candy Coburn has been a full-time national touring singer-songwriter over the past two decades and is proudly based in Austin, Texas.

She not only gets her kicks performing live music and teaching/speaking, but she also has a fiery passion for unity and love expressed through relational support/encouragement. With her own unique voice of "southern rock-infused gospel soul," her uplifting, genuine songs appeal to music lovers of all styles.

Her performance experience, teaching background, being a spokesperson for major corporations, and rocking national event efforts speak volumes about Candy's diverse, unique abilities. She has written and recorded seven original albums, and her songs have been featured on national television campaigns and radio. Along her music career, Candy has had the pleasure of working with some of the greatest songwriters in the Nation.

Candy has been in the musical performance arena for over 20 years and has been a guest Speaker/Teacher for over a hundred organizations.

For your organization, school, group, or nonprofit's next big event, Candy can offer her skills as a speaker, musical guest, and teacher. Adjusting for your organization's size and goals, Candy's decades of extensive touring experience can help you plan and budget for your next event!

CLIENT TESTIMONIALS

Rarely, do you meet someone who, as a gifted and accomplished entertainer, also possesses a high level of business savvy. Candy is an Artist who understands that what happens off stage and behind the scenes' is probably more important than what happens on stage in front of a crowd of fans. Common sense and artistic ability rarely cross paths...but in Candy's case, she stands solidly in that intersection.

One of the many things that made working with Candy such a pleasure was she realized from the beginning that she was a business and the CEO. A music career is an entrepreneurial venture with all the associated risks and rewards. Candy realized that and was able to manage her career more effectively because of that awareness. Fans gravitate to artists who put energy and passion into their performances. All of Candy's shows were an experience, not just an event. She brings all her heart and soul every time.

I have been lucky in my years of owning and managing several businesses, have worked with great leaders and business people, but I have never worked with anyone that has more passion, drive and real savvy than Candy. Candy is a great leader and business person that sees the big picture and can focus on the smallest detail. Always 150% positive, always on top of her game in every aspect. Wall Street Journal in a story featured the unique arrangement that she established with the restaurant chain "Texas Roadhouse". Always a winner!
